Albany, Nov. 22 .- Delegates to the New York State Woman Suffrage party Partment, will begin its 10 days' expledged themselves today to raise $300,750 for the 1917 votes for women campaign. So spontaneous was the arts and science where the test is being enthusiasm aroused by an address by Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, president of the National American Woman Suffrage association, supplemented by an appeal from Mrs. Ogden Mills Reid the state treasurer, that the pledges exceeded by $75,750 the $225,000 re quested of the state organization by the National convention at Atlantic City. Ten per cent of the $225,000 will be devoted to the campaign for the passage of a federal suffrage amendment.

Besides the money promised, many of the delegates pledged themselves to work in perfecting organization-one even pledged her services as an organizer for a year-and there were countless pledges of entertainment for state and municipal authorities to the workers for campaign purposes. In addition to exceeding the Atlantic City pledge, the convention today nominated officers, received proposed amendments to the organization's constitution, the principal one of which would make the officers' term two years instead of one, and heard optimistic reports of organizing work from district leaders. The president and officers were nominated with the exception of Mrs. Alice Duer Miller, the corresponding secretary, who was named for the chairmanship of a proposed new finance board. Mrs. Charles Noel Edge was nominated for corresponding secretaryship. The election

TO LOWER LIVING COST

New York, Nov. 22, - Definite steps were taken here today by federal, ameliorate, if possible, the admittedly serious conditions resulting from the steadily mounting cost of living. Agents of the department of justice completed a thorough investigation in the rise in the price of coal and a report is now being prepared for submission to Attorney General Gregory. It was predicted that the report, which will include the result of investigations in the mining regions, would result in vigorous action by the attorney general's office.

District Attorney Swann announced tonight that several indictments under the state anti-trust law may be returned soon against middlemen believed to have entered into "gentlemen's agreements" His announcement followed the appearance before the grand jury of members of an alleged "poultry trust" and the serving of subpoenas on several coal dealers, who are to appear before the grand jury tomorrow.

"The high cost of living is not due to the war but to the cupidity of food speculators," said District Attorney Swann, "But conspiracy in these cases is very hard to prove."

Mayor Mitchel announced tonight, after devoting the entire day to conferences with prominent citizens and members of his cabinet, that he will appeal to the legislature for relief. He the ballot, while we in a republic have will have introduced, he said, a bill providing for the establishment of central markets in order to obtain for ing food products offered at public auction. SUPERVISORS EQUALIZE ASSESS. MENT ON COUNTY'S PROPERTY.

Resolution an Innovation and Meet-With Considerable, Opposition Led by Mr. Sawyer-Board Accepts Invitations to Visit the Susan Fenimore Cooper Foundation and the County

Cooperstown, Nov. 22 .-- (Special) --In spite of considerable opposition. led by Mr. Sawyer of Cherry Valice. the board of supervisors at the session here this afternoon adopted a resolution fixeing the ratio which the assessed value of the real property of each tax district of the county bears to the real value as follows:

Surlington .....

The resolution, which was presented by Mr. Whippie, chairman of the equalization committee, is an innovation in that the ratios have always in the past been computed by the comniftee and included in the full report of the committee. With their adoption at this time it is pointed out that the work is simplified as there will be no chance of the full report being upset at the last minute by any change or desired change in the ratio on which the equalization is figured.

When the resolution was read by Clerk Johnson, Mr. Sawyer arose and stating that he considered the matter a very important one moved that it be made a special order for Thursday morning at 19 o'clock. BUILDING ROAD CULVERTS.

Three Fundamental Requirements Necessary In Construction.

A recent bulletin of the American Highway association contains some instructions on culvert building which are of value to the maker of roads, In building a culvert the road builder must observe three fundamental requirements:

First.-The culvert must be so placed that it will drain across the road and inder the road, of course, all the water that is delivered to it by the side ditch along the road. If this is not done the earth along the road and about the end of the culvert will be wet and soggy during the greater part of the year, and the culvert opening will require almost constant repairs. Repairing a highway culvert in the country is relatively more expensive than similar work in a town because of the waste of time of the workmen in going to and from the point at which the work must be done. In placing the culvert care must also be taken that it will not be choked by brush and leaves. This duty must be discharged by the road supervisor if Second,-A very important requirement in the building of a culvert is that its ends must be protected by some kind of wall or facing carried down to a firm foundation. If this is done it will be found that the end of the culvert will not be undercut by the water and will not be broken frost will not injure it, the surrounding or superincumbent earth will not slide down into the ditch in front of the opening, and, with the further necessary work of keening the feeding ditches clear, the culvert will be New Berlin, Nov. 22.-The Inde- able to take care of all the water alongside the read.

secretary of state, to deal in farm pro- strong that it will not break and so duce, milk products, etc., with a capi- hight that it will not leak. These Chapin, Lewis N. Gage and Henry A. must be determined by the relative cost of the several materials at the locality where the culvert is to be built and by the distance from the top of the culvert to the surface of the road. If the culverts are not built of good material they will have to be rebuilt in a few years. Defective culverts vising one of the elementary principles of highway economics, and the interests of the taxpayers require that the annual cost of every part of the roads built for their use be reduced to the lowest possible figure consistent with efficiency.

A Race of Tenors.

Generally speaking, races living at high altitudes have weaker and more nice, soft hair and lots of it. Just highly pitched voices than those living is more plentiful. Thus in South America, among the Indians living on and within ten minutes there will be the plateaus between the ranges of the Andes, at an elevation of from 10,000 to 14,000 feet, the men have voices like women and the women like children, falling hair; but your real surprise will their singing being a shrill monotone. voice, but a knack of sending it a long distance, and the lowest tribes of same category; but, it is said, of all compass, the weakest of human voices.

It has been suggested that there should be a single tax for motor vehicles used for commercial purposes -that is they should not be liable to assessment and direct taxation like other forms of personal property once their highway license is paid. This may have points to commend it: to an extreme, might be applied by railway and steamship lines to their the decision half. holdings and to other forms of transpertation. Altogether the whole proposition is a difficult one, and perhaps not the easiest thing in it is the proper adjustment of the license system to the commercial vehicle.

COMMENTS OF THE PRESS

Elections Too Burdensome.

Once more at the conclusion of a long-drawn-out presidential eampaign the thought will occur to most people that these contests begin too early, demand too much time and cost too much energy and money.

June conventions are a survival of stage-coach days when communication was slow and difficult. Under existing conditions there is no necessity for making nominations before September, and a month devoted to the dates and parties should be ample, tion commission. We Read This Good Advice:

You cannot do a more kindly or more Christian act than to plan your holiday buying NOW, and get it done.

Perhaps this may apply more particularly to the larger stores in big Cities, but we think that right here in Oneonta it is excellent advice to follow.

It is something that will benefit the Oneonta merchants, the clerks and buyers alike.

and Jimmy Juniper, who hated to get washed and was more often seen with dirty face than with a clean one.

His mother urged him to be more tidy, and his tather scolded: but, after t all, it was a little ant that made a better boy of Jimmy.

He was sitting on the porch one evening feeling very sleepy and wishing he could get out of taking the bath that his mother always insisted upon before he crawled into his soft bed.

Jimmy had been nodding several times when he felt his head go around, and before he knew what to think he had slipped down to the ground in front of the poich steps and was looking right into the eyes of a little black

"Hello, Jimmy!" the ant said. "Going to pay us a visit, are you?" Jimmy didn't say a word, but the ant took hold of one arm and began to MEETING THE HEAD WAITER hurry him along through a forest of grass. Jimmy, looking up, saw the

When You See These Preits Girls in Your Druggie's Window It's a Good Time To End Your Corns.

That's what they all say the very mest time they use "GETS-IT" is so simple and entry to use—put it on in a few seconds—because there is no work or corn-faciling to do, no pain that shoots up to your heart, it gets your corns on your mind. All the time it's working—and then, that little old corn preis right off, leaves the clean, corn-free skin underneath—and your corn is gone. No wonder millions prefer "GITS-IT". Try it tonight.

REDUCE WEIGHT 10 POUNDS OR MORE

"I'd certainly give most anything to be able to reduce a few pounds and stay that war," declares every excessively fat man or woman Such a result is not impossible despite past failures. Most fat people are the victims of supernutrition, a condition which prevents the faity elements of food front being consumed by the Picod. Insiend of only neurishing the blood, much of the fat producing elements are deposited in different parts of the body where they don't belong.

To correct this condition and to produce a healths, normal distribution the nutritive processes must be artillerally supplied with the fat-burning power which nature has demed them. This can probably be best accomplished by taking an Oil of Kotein empsile with every meal.
